David Clements & Pam Gregory Team Messages Anthology

In January of 2025 Pam Gregory began a series of conversations with Dr. David Clements about the evolution for humanity, our Solar System and beyond. They continue to this day and have expanded to include nearly a dozen other topics.
Dr Clements is a theoretical physicist with advanced degrees in Maths and Physics from our most highly regarded universities in England, Oxford and Cambridge. He is now a Living Energy Systems expert, developing regenerative technologies to help humanity.
His life path shifted from academia to also include the development of the ability to function as a contactee with a number of galactic groups which he refers to collectively as his team. Each element of the team speaks on topics most appropriate to the situation when invited to speak. Dr. Clements is a very capable trance channel and has included that type of contact at the end of most of these conversations. The purity and inspirational nature of these channeled message segments has been assembled here as an anthology so that they can be read back to back.

It is particularly worth noting that such content is completely free of verbal hiccups of any kind that occur in normal human speech. Even the short mid-sentence pauses cause commas to fall in the correct place. This is exceptionally smooth delivery. If you are relaxed as you read this, you may be able to feel the intensity and depth of the words as you take in the emotion of their meaning.

DAVID: Yes, we can enter. I could feel them rushing, wanting to come through, this is easy. Okay. So: [Deep breath as channeling starts]
Greetings, beloved forms of Love. This is the Source Intelligence speaking through this point to the very same point within you. Beloved souls, your journey, I would say is just beginning. But the unfoldment that is happening, particularly in this year and with the overlay of the leaving chaos that you see around you is going to be transformed in ways that you cannot yet imagine.
It is known that it is difficult for you. And this message is given to you to help you better feel and know that your transformation into the light. Whether you choose in this incarnation or the next is guaranteed. Nothing is going to prevent it. You see this experiment with the apparency of the lack of light that in your perception you call the darkness. It is in effect the apparent lack of living intelligence, which can at any moment of your choosing be filled with living intelligence.

And like an analogy, when you walk into a darkened room and you turn on the light, what happens? All perception of darkness instantaneously disappears. You see, dear souls, you are returning to the truth of who you really are as living light in form, having what you would call a human experience.
You are transforming in this very moment. Do not entangle yourselves with the chaos that is leaving, because as the light enters, just like the light switching on in the darkened room, it disappears, because it was never really there to begin with. But you see your perception of it and your reaction to it is what gives it the sense of realism you perceive it to have.
And this is made possible by this level of density and polarity. And like the experiment that this one [David] likes to tell, if you put a virtual reality headset on, you could very quickly convince yourself that what you perceive is really happening to you, where in truth, it is a created illusion, and so it is with darkness.
And so, this message is as you feel yourself struggling with your inner difficulties, which is really simply your own holding on to illusions that you don't yet realize that you have. Be still. Be quiet within yourself. Ask if you wish to be connected with your infinity sacred point, to be imbued with your higher self-love light intelligence, and offer both your holding on and the illusion to which you are holding onto that intelligence, and see how fast it disappears.
And to your question, dear one, we will say this. The path of humanity is beyond your imagination. It is that beautiful. You are like a flower learning to grow through the darkened spaces of the soil, to break through, to realize the tremendous amount of light that awaits you. This is how we would describe your situation right now.
And sweet ones you have broken through. The veils are dissolving. You have pierced them because you have changed the perception within yourself to such a level that you have attained a consciousness that realizes, whether subtly or deeply, that you are beyond those fictitious veils.

And so in the coming months and years, as you allow it to be, and that is the key word, sweet ones. Will you allow it to be? Because that allowance does not change the trajectory or where humanity is going, but it does change the speed, the perception of the speed of your getting there.
And so find the moments of peace to be enjoyed, detach from the outer goings on for this is the illusion dissolving, sweet ones. And while it will appear to fight and try to perpetuate itself, that in itself is an illusion. Allow it to leave, allow it to dissolve, disengage and come into your center.
You will find all the aspects that trouble you in your life will very rapidly transform around you, because you will transform from perpetuating chaotic illusions to being in peace and exuding peace. And so your life can do nothing, but transform into that very same thing.
We will leave you with this. Your future is beautiful. It is as profound and beyond your imagining, and it is going to transform in ways that you do not expect.
Enjoy this adventure, sweet ones. You have chosen to be here. You are now at the final opening of the curtain, where things that are going to be revealing within you, that are going to change you in ways that will bring such sweetness, such harmony, such adventures that you have not dreamed of. This is yours, dear, sweet ones. It is coming. Nothing can stop it.
And so it is.

New Potentials for Humanity with Dr. David Clements –Pam Gregory

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_jHZWE2pKd8 84m May 2, 2025

DAVID: Okay:
Dear beloved souls of this Earth, this is the Source Intelligence speaking through this one. That is the same Source Intelligence that is you, that dwells within you. Dear humanity, you are so loved. And it is known that sometimes you do not feel this, but you are reminded again and again.

Your human species is on course for the most magnificent unveiling. And as this one has been saying, potentials that were once not available to you are in fact wide open now and in turn those potential paths are opening up yet new windows and potentials of experience and existence in human form.
Dear souls, you really are trailblazers to coin a human phrase. The trajectories and human potential as seen from this perspective and that of the vast array of support that assists humanity is ecstatic. It is wished that you know this information to feel and know just how far you have come. The barriers you have gone over, the challenges you have transcended have been enormous. And humanity's time forward is going to yield surprises of the most beautiful kind that you do not expect.
And the surprise of which will not be spoiled for you as the elation of having such an opening in your experience should not be spoiled.
And as this one has said, the light that is available and will become available has never been present on this Earth. In part as it is now and that will soon become.
And dear ones, do not be dismayed by the events unfolding around you. It is the literal clearing of the hidden energetics within you. That is leaving and leave it will. You are truly supported in your entire experience. Your higher self is with you always. You can never leave nor can your higher self leave you because you are your higher self. And that support is there for you now and will ever be regardless of the form you choose to incarnate in. And it is asked of you to be aware of that unlimited support and to call upon it to assist you. Do not be afraid to call on your higher self. Your higher self wishes to help, wishes to help clear you.
But as this one has said, your free will will not be encroached. And so simply understanding that piece of information is a large key in working with your true self in transcending. All that you hold onto that is not you. To fully release and let go and allow the blending back into your truth, to remember yourself as your truth.
And dear souls, this message will finish with this.

You are Love. Love is simply a word.
But what it refers to is the unlimited infinite quality of creation itself. This is you. It has always been you. It is you now and it will always be in your future.
Will you return to that perception, sweet ones? Will you let go of all that you hold of yourself, that is false?
If you would take that journey deeper into that Love Intelligence, that presence of truth that is your core, that is without identity, that is without grip.
Sweet souls, the magic and sweetness, the adventure as this one has said, is all there for you In that core of who you are. It is simply the unlimited infinite Source Love Intelligence.
And so it is.

DAVEY: Yes, so my teams, my high self, would you like to say anything on this? They go, yes, so okay, I'm going to start:
Greetings to you all. We are the Arcturians. It is our great pleasure and joy to introduce this information to you this day as this one has asked for.
And so the message we wish to share is one of immense joy and possibility. You see, as this one has mentioned, as he calls it, the possibilities of the human supercomputer, we will elaborate. You see, your body is designed to be in immaculate, receiver and transceiver and worker of energies we will say. And so far, because of the human condition, even though you have extensions multidimensionally, your bodies have been at a state which has meant your ability to work with energies has been exceptionally limited, even for those of you who are sensitive.
We will give you an example. In the days to come, should you be willing to take this transformation, you will be able to perceive information from one side of this galaxy to another effortlessly. You will be aware of as this one calls it, the living organism that is this planet, this solar system, this galaxy and beyond.

Do you see how exciting this is? Dear brothers and sisters, you have within you a combination of master elements of DNA, from races such like us that when fixed together and operating and opened, shall we say to such a degree, the energy synergy, the energy flow, the energy sensitivity, and the energy perception of that immaculate energy system is profound. We are truly excited to see where you humanity will take this.
And we will say looking at the quantum potentials, that your destiny is one of truth, shall we say, like a supernova of evolution. The spark of change began long ago. The journeys you have been through have been very difficult. We understand this. But as this one has said, you are undoing and letting go of old layers that do not serve you. They are simply layers of self-created limitation. In response to outer happenings, misunderstandings, and an array of other facets of human existence. This is okay. This was expected in this game. And each of you fully understood before your incarnate cycle all of the possibilities of what would happen, what you would gain, what you would go through, and what you would come out with on the other side and take with you into your next incarnation cycle. We cannot overemphasize as we have done to this one the importance of the cherished sacred heart existence.
We as our Arcturians have developed many what are called technologies, but these are living organic technologies that are biased for life, that serve life, and are used throughout this galaxy and are in many collaborations with other races and beings from other galaxies. Do you see the joy and interconnectivity?
This is something that is made possible by living within the heart center, and as we said to this one many years ago, the difference in living in a head-centered way, we shall say, to living in a heart-centered way is so profound we cannot adequately express this in the words that you use. Heart-centered existence is your future should you wish it, dear brothers and sisters. The leaps and bounds that you will make are so enormous it very much has the eyes from within this galaxy and beyond waiting to see what you will do.

And we will come back to the aspect of your perception. And what you will be capable and what you are capable of perceiving, once your physical body, once you as a being integrate and connect with your high-dimensional aspects and your cellular structure evolves to meet that energetic. Imagine for a moment that as a being in a human vessel we will say an evolved human vessel into what you are becoming. You will be able to perceive and have perception of the entire galaxy and beyond that is the significance of your sensitivity and perception that you are going to gain should you choose to gain it.

Imagine having the ability to create energetics with a level of sensitivity that spans such an enormous living organism. Because with that sensitivity comes the understanding and the awareness that you are the galaxy, that you are the universe. You will have such a profound jump in your sense of self that we dare say you cannot even begin to imagine what it will be like. But in saying these things we hope to excite you. We hope to give you a small impression of what is yet to come.

And in the days coming as large energies become cleared remember to keep peaceful, keep centered. Do not get caught up in the whirlwind of change. For change there must be. It is change that you have asked for. And for this change to come about the old must leave. This simply must be so dear brothers and sisters. And we as your Arcturian family as well as many races many of which you do not know the names of are all here to assist you.

We watch and observe with sheer excitement to see the beautiful steps, the brave steps, the massive consequential steps that you take in every day of your lives and we support you. That is our message for now. We love you, we are with you. We are your brothers and sisters. Go in peace.

Telomeres and the Light with Dr. David Clements Pam Gregory

DAVID: Yes, in the beginning team intelligence wanted to bring through a message. So okay:
Hello, dear, beautiful souls. It is with great delight that this opportunity comes to give you these energies. And as this one has said, it is the energies that are important. Energy is a right word. Words are vibrational sounds that themselves carry energy. It is seen that many of you are going through some of the deepest puzzle pieces that you have selected yourselves to come here and work through in the way that this one has already spoken on. Dear souls, everything in your human way is okay. You are performing these tasks of solving these energetics with profundity.
And this is not said lightly. From higher perspectives, there are many beings and as the collective whole of Source Intelligence, what you are doing and have done is beyond all measure of where you were expected to be. Even simply from a view of a handful of years ago. 60m
And you are reminded again, you are Source Love presence. You may deny that, but that is your truth. And that is the beauty of your choice ability. You can choose to deny that truth and indeed live a very uncomfortable life in doing so as you have seen or you may choose to embrace your truth.
And to live a life that is unending in the beauty, the sweetness, the compassion, and the unending exploration and adventure of who you really are. And that is what you are choosing. There are many races of beings that have attained very high levels. Their joy is ecstatic to watch you unfold in this process. They understand and they know the density through which you are working and they delight at each step you take towards greater inner unfoldment.
And what is it to unfold within you? And in truth, there is nothing to unfold. You are simply clearing the filters that have fooled you that you are not Source Love Intelligence, that you are somehow separated.
Dear sweet souls, this is nothing but an illusion. And it is an illusion that you both opted to undergo and you have added to over many years of very difficult and trying lifetimes. And this is very understandable. And add into this mix, human emotion. Human emotion is very strong, is it not? It was designed to be that way. And this is part of the delightful package that is unfolding ahead of you for with your powerful emotional abilities.

The delight of living in human form as this process unfolds will become a pivotal sweetness of existence. This is one of the many reasons why many races are absolutely in excitement of what humanity is going to move into and become. The human form ability to work with energies is profound.
You have entered timelines that have opened up new possibilities that were not considered possible before. And this has been spoken of before. And it will be said again. There is a new wave of energy, as has been said before, the tip of which will reach you at the very beginning of this December. As this wave unfolds there will be waves within waves within waves and on top of waves we will say.
But we will not spoil the surprise by unraveling the beautiful wave packets that are coming your way. Because it is very much hoped for you as a human being to take the opportunity to move into greater surrender to yourself, to experience yourself to experience what it is to be Love in human form for this is what it is all about.
You are Source Love Intelligence, a tip of which is filling the human form that you have. And in doing so is transforming that human form and all of the components, the structural components that make up that human form. And so you are living through a multitude of overlayering evolutions, both within your consciousness and your human form, and your experience of the environment that reflects that outside of you. And now one last message on the wave. This wave has been created and is part of new timelines that you are entering and have located yourself on.
And it would be said that even ten years of your lifetime ago, this wave was not a possibility. Congratulate yourself sweet ones for the work that you have done, the work that you have done together in groups and individually, has made such a profound emanation from within you and from within the Earth, that these new delightful timelines now exist.
And it is asked of you to feel the profundity of what you have done. And you did this with limited access to your Source Intelligence within. Do you feel sweet ones, the delight and the profundity of what you have done? To coin a human phrase, it is simply extraordinary. It is beautiful to behold, and it is a delight beyond all words can explain to watch and feel the human form evolve as rapidly and in the levels and ways that it is doing so.

And so sweet ones, in leaving this message, you are reminded once again. You are the sweetness, you are the compassion, you are the gentleness, you are the everything that Love is.
And please take a moment to feel that within you. Feel the almost childlike simplicity of the sweetness of who you are in your core. That is your true nature. Do you feel it sweet ones? And should you feel any doubt, any lack in self-value? Simply let it go. None of it has any truth or founding to it at all. It is simply another filter that you have placed in misunderstanding many experiences over many lifetimes. The unending quality of your profoundness is there, it has been there, and it shall ever be there, and can never leave. Where else would you go?
Source Love is the everything. It is who you are, and it is who you are remembering yourself to be. Be it peace, sweet ones. This process and your inner process is unfolding magnificently.And again beyond all words, any words that can describe this, because they do not exist. This is an experience. It is a beautiful and profound experience. Allow yourselves to feel the beauty of who you are. There is no measure to give you, to explain the beauty of who you are, but you will come to realize this. You will come to feel this even if you do not know.
You are Love, sweet ones. You always have been, and you ever shall be, Love,
And so it is.

The Return to Love Intelligence with Dr. David Clements

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Vgr7SHjO3J0 90m Oct 1, 2025

DAVID: Okay, so, Source Love Intelligence, my high self, my love light family is any message that you would like to channel through.

And yes, Source Intelligence would like to bring one through:

Greetings, beloved souls. It is with great joy that all of creation is in fact experiencing. whether they realize it or not, in civilizations that span this galaxy and beyond, are aware that tremendous leaps that you humanity is making. You see, you are simply not just going through what you call the ascension process for yourselves and, indeed, the Earth herself. The magnificence of what you are taking part in is most certainly causing a profound ripple effect that civilizations beyond any of the galaxies you can currently see with what you call your telescopes are experiencing. This stage in creation is vast.

And you, dear humans, are playing what you would call a major role in this. It has been spoken before that there are so many eyes from different civilizations, different forms that are both delighted and excited to see the steps that you take and indeed are helping in a multitude of ways.

And what is this all about?

Sweet ones, it is about Love. You are returning and indeed evolving into a human vessel that will become a pure vessel of the intelligence of Love itself. For far too long, some might say, humanity has experienced this disconnection, this appearance as if Source Love Intelligence did not exist at all.

As if you had been left alone, in a human phrase, nothing could be further from the truth. You see by going through these trials and tribulations you have allowed yourselves to go into depths of illusion, contraction and compression that were very deep indeed.

And what is it that you have attained by doing so?

And here is the key, one of many, as to why so many civilizations are going to feel the ripple effects of what you are doing. By going into this depth of the ocean, let us say, and making waves in blasting your light quite literally into the density within and around you that light permeates all the way through different levels, seeding solutions, seeding activations, seeding the ability to dissolve existing systems that confine consciousness in realms and worlds that you know not the names of.

Do you see dear ones? What you are doing, what you are taking place in, what you are actively doing, by simply being the presence of Love Intelligence at this depth of density. You are transforming and offering transformation to all of existence. Does the profoundness of what you are doing, where you are, what you are going through, coming into deeper clarity and purpose, for it does, sweet ones. You are loved beyond measure. You are Love and you will always be Love even though you may choose to fool yourselves otherwise.

As you move through these steps and you reach closer to the points of ignition. That point when a deep opening within your heart centers will activate, you will understand in a way that you simply cannot comprehend at this time. This is coming and it is coming fast.

And so sweet ones, find the sweet center, the infinite center of who you are. The more you do this, the more you practice, the more you allow the infusion of this Source Intelligence into your consciousness, into your minds, your beings, your cells, the very fabric of your DNA. The enlightening process is innate. It is simple. In the coming days, if you find yourself moving away from this center, as has been spoken of, remind yourself, come back to center.

All of that which transpires outside of you, the turmoil, the activity, the strife, this is the old energy, dissolving away. You see in many ways, these external energy systems require you, sweet ones. They require your focus upon them to sustain them.

But you are shifting back into heart-centered intelligence, releasing these attachments, these external focuses based on fear that have been feeding and supporting these old paradigm systems.

And the more you come back inside, the more these systems will dissolve and dissolve, they are, and you see it every day. Do not be disheartened by what you see. Be excited, sweet ones.

Be excited. For this is the transformation you have been asking for and requesting, and you knew before you incarnated, many, many cycles that this was going to happen, and that this is the lifetime that it is going to happen in. This is a very special time, sweet ones. The floor is yours, the choice is yours.

And as a last gift in this communication, if you are willing, your individual higher selves would love to offer you a gift. This is quite purposeful. This gift in many ways is to deeply help advance the coming ignition, the ignition of your truth, the sweet Love Intelligence that is going to dissolve through a barrier within your heart-center. And the realizations, the understanding, the compassion, the beauty within you, will be as if a wellspring that never switches off. You will delight in your very being in ways you simply cannot understand at this time.
And so if you wish to experience this gift from your higher selves, simply say yes to your higher self. And it is asked of you to wait just a moment. Relax. Let go. Allow your selves, if you will, to play in the energy that is coming through to you now, from your higher selves. Let go of all grip. Let go of trying to think of what has been given to you. Relax into the sweetness, the centeredness of the energy that has been given to you as if walking into a beautiful warm ocean, completely relaxed, enjoying every moment in peace and centeredness. Relax and feel the bliss, the serenity. You are now closer to who you really are than you were before.
And so it is.

On the Precipice of our Evolutionary Change with Dr David Clements-Pam Gregory

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EF0GOG_955c 60m Nov. 24, 2025

DAVID: [goes into trance]
Greetings, beloved souls. This is the Source Intelligence, the same Source Intelligence that dwells within you. Much is coming forward, much of which you see now, and so much which is unseen, which will be pure delight, is coming forward.
Dear ones, this is all part of the process. You are great and experienced souls, each and every one of you. There are no exceptions. You came here to this planet to be a part of this great and grand awakening and evolutionary process.

And in doing so, you knew you would face challenges. You delighted in facing these challenges before you incarnated because you understood what was to unfold. And so you are encouraged to understand this as these last vestiges of what you would call dark energetics are purged and released from both your selves and to the Earth and the solar system as a whole.

These are illusion, sweet ones. It is a game, and it is understood that at times it most certainly does not feel like a game to you. Be gentle and compassionate with yourselves. In future days, near days, it will be said, you will understand, you will feel the joy of this transformational process. It is close, sweet ones, very close. You will understand what it is to live in bliss. Many have spoken of the word of bliss, but what is it?

This is something that you will experience. And when you are in that energy of bliss, you will look at these times and you will laugh with joy. You will laugh at the tremendous strides you have taken, the expansions you have undergone, and the immense evolution that you have brought to existence as a whole, not just to yourselves and this planet and this solar system. It is far bigger than that, sweet ones, far bigger. And so be in joy. The fruits of all your releases, all of the challenges that you have overcome, and just a few more that are just ahead of you. You will delight in these experiences from the perspective of the joy that you will be moving into.

And remember, you are Source Love. You are the intelligence of Source Love. It is the same Source Intelligence that created every Solar System, every Galaxy, every Universe, every level that you call multi-dimensionality.

It is within you, you are there. You have been there for it all, sweet ones, and you ever shall be. Feel that immensity inside yourselves. And remember that powerful light. Should you feel in the waves of purging that come through you, that cause you to feel that that is not the case? It is just an illusion, sweet ones. It is just the release of false energetics that create the appearance of being truth. They are not.

For that which is not truth dissolves in light, that which is truth endures. And you are truth, sweet ones, at your core. You are safe, you are profound, you are guided both internally and by your support teams. Everything is unfolding beautifully, and you are a magnificent part of this unfolding. And it is asked of you to remember this.

And so it is. [end of message]

New Paradigm of Living Membranes with David Clements, Pam Gregory

https://www.bitchute.com/video/8PFm3ITpXSKF/ 72m Jan.-15, 2026

So the Source Intelligence is coming through and it's interesting because what the Source Intelligence is saying is rather than give a message, a channeled message, what that intelligence is saying is, can you feel that very same energy that would be coming through in a channeling within you? And if you can just close your eyes just for a second and just feel that Source Intelligence and relax with it, then really relax with it.
And the Source Intelligence is saying just allow yourself to surrender and immerse within and allow the Source Intelligence to present itself to you and fill and flood you and just feel that in a very gentle rhythmic breathing that can be as slow or as fast or as deeper or shallow as you wish it to be that gives you the most comfort, the most joy in the most relaxation that is rhythmic breathing.
And so Source Intelligence is saying “Dear ones, this is how simple it is, this is within you, it has always been within you and will never leave because this is where you come from, no matter your experience, no matter what it is that is unfolding, Source Intelligence is your core, it is your center and it is always there and available for you. This is the energy that is there in the center of any storm you experience.
And it is saying “Now as you sit in the eye of whatever storm you happen to sit, allowing this energy to come forward, feel now if you wish the energy of Source Intelligence now filling and pervading the very storm spinning around you itself and give that storm and any way in which you are creating or holding that storm in place to the core Source Intelligence within you and allow it to dissolve."

This is a very simple exercise in the coming days and weeks and your months, as major energies are going to shift, major paradigms are going to be shown to you and although many may be uncomfortable in whatever way that is to you, uniquely, sit in the peaceful core energy within you and allow if you wish all agitation of the storm swirling around you to be filled with the Source emanation that comes from your center and watch how gentle and peaceful the storm settles down.
And remember, Source Intelligence is the primary intelligence, the unified field whichever you wish to call it behind all things. And as an individuated creator with free will on this planet, you can make the choice to invite Source energy in or stay as you are. But you are invited to see the difference of what it feels like to be in a storm of your experience and to allow Source Intelligence to soothe and dissolve and disappear the energy of that storm.
And so it is.

The Unraveling of You with Dr. David Clements Pam Gregory

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NRuCnSuOyGk 68m Mar. 20, 2026

PAM: And is there any final message you'd like to share, David, before we close? This has been wonderful.
DAVID: Yes, for sure. So we spoke before the interview, the recorded section, that I tuned in beforehand and asked if the teams or the Infinite Source Intelligence wanted to give a message*. And they said not a message as such, like a channeled message*.
What they would love to consider people doing is really because what they see at this time, more than ever, is lots of people getting really confuddled and all caught up in all the events that are going on. And really needing something to hold onto for hope and, oh, is it going to be okay? Is it going to be okay?

And that's an understandable human nature. But what they're saying is what they really would love to encourage people to do is to go back within. You see, think of all the masters that you might've heard of or might've worked with or called on, or the archangels, angels, whoever it is that you work with. They have this immense connection with their Source presence inside. They are never engaged or tangled up.

They see everything. They see more of the uglier truths than any human could possibly even see. They are at peace. They don't get upset about these things. Yes, there's a movement to make positive change, but they don't get embroiled in it and all riled up because they know in their core, everything is okay. Everything is moving as it should.

And so there is an ask for people to consider that coming back into yourself, getting to know yourself as your Source Intelligence, changing your emission is in fact changing the timelines. It is changing how everything takes place outside of you. Getting wrapped up in all sorts of things outside of you doesn't do that. It re-empowers it because you focus on an energy. You give it energy, you store the energy in it, and now you've given it more battery life, basically, in one way of speaking.

PAM: You're attached to it as well.

DAVID: Yes, you're attached to it. Yes, you're propping it up basically. So they're saying that the most beneficial thing that anyone can do is go inside, find that peace, learn to be in, sit in, and live in the energy of your highest self, your Source Self.

And for anybody who's new to this work, on the Patreon site, which I'm sure you'll put the link down below, there are two free meditations, number 14 and 15, which are the beginning of the opening of the sacred heart and the infinity point, which is your direct connection to Source Intelligence itself If you just practice those, or even find your own version that you feel happy with, if that's what you want to do. But just connect with the Source Self inside and just, if you wish to, make that a daily practice when you get up, before you go to sleep. You can even ask your highest self to put you in a cocoon or a membrane that will hold that energy while you sleep around you.

All that assistance is there, but to keep understanding and reminding yourself that you are not a feather being blown around in the winds of the external. You are a master creator that emits energy, and it's the quality of energy that you emit that determines your experience and the collective experience as well.
So it's not about what's going on out there, it's all about what's going on in here and what filters do you have in the way that are causing ruckuses or things to go wrong, and your highest self will work with you to understand what they are and help you break it down and clear it away very fast. And that's what my experience has been.
So they're saying that really is their message for today, for people to do, because there is an enormous paradigm shift taking place. Now, they're saying in the old paradigm of human beingness, it was all about out of focus, and there were necessary steps in place in spiritual circles to help people understand certain things, but a lot of it was geared towards external viewing and so forth.
They're saying you're now moving into a brand new paradigm where it is all about the internal. And don't be afraid to let go of old paradigms that are no longer working for you because you will jump, you will move paradigms.
And eventually you're going to come completely in your center where you are completely sovereign, you are self-running, you are self-determining, you determine the vibration that you emit, the quality of the light you emit, and how you shape your reality.
And they're saying this is how these beings, such as the masters. That's what the master part refers to, that's what they have done. They have come within, they are fully operating from within; they don't get embroiled with the external. They learn how to change themselves in order to change the external.
They don't grapple and fight and wrestle with the external. They know, because it all comes from whatever reality they're in, it comes from within. And they can change the dial up; they can change the dial down, whichever way they want to.
That is the mastery that we're moving into

So, and they're saying, just as a last message, that many people are going to, and are already feeling this, saying many people who are listening to this now will already be feeling like there is a need to perhaps change from what they're currently doing, whatever that is, I don't know what that is, that's just the words they're giving.
And moving into something new, they're saying, just enjoy the experience of it, don't be afraid, because that is an inner request from your inner self to say, okay, you no longer need this, you need to move into something new because you're getting closer and closer to yourself now. And so the number of external paradigms, let's call them, I don't know, constructs, courses, whatever you want to call them, although they've served great purpose for what they've done, you're now moving beyond them and you're moving closer towards your own core.
So you live completely and entirely from there. So they're saying that's the paradigm that humanity is moving into, and they're saying you are right. Some people are moving in different ways, some people, because of the nature of what they've selected to go through, that the density appears to be going a little bit slower.
It's not really so much slower; it's more that they've opted to take on a great deal of heavy stuff, so there's a bit more to release than, say, somebody else. So yes, and they're saying once again, feel into your core and ask your core the question: how are things going? They're saying you're going to be very surprised by the answer that you get because the answer is, perfectly okay.

A New Heart Intelligence and Evolutionary Waves with David Clements Pam

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-KXTFoIPq5A 84m July 25, 2026

Yes. So this is from the core intelligence within me.
It's a message of hope. And, but it's not hope as we would define it in human terms. It's not an, oh my, I hope this works out. It's saying rest assured, dear humanity, that everything is working and everything is flowing. And as has been said, far better than was expected 10 in 20 or 30 of your years ago, you are making transformative progress in ways that were not expected to be, as was just said many decades ago.

And as been said in this conversation, many, many gateways and openings are opening daily for you by what you were doing, the energy that you have inside you and that you allow to emanate from you. And so here is the message.

[EYES CLOSE]
Relax humanity. This is already well in hand.
What it is asked of you is to simply relax into your being. Enjoy your day. Enjoy your family. Enjoy yourself, your life. Celebrate yourself. Celebrate what you do. Let go of the harshness. Let go of all judgment. There is nothing to judge.
You have done and are doing exceptional work, no matter how you feel about yourself, whether you feel you're not doing enough, whether you feel exhausted. Simply being the expression that you are emanating the Living Light Intelligence within you is exactly what you came here to do.
And yes, there have been clearing patches and there are clearing patches and there will be perhaps more to clear depending on where your path is leading. But the most important thing and the reason for the clearing is so that you can emanate more so that you can ground more of the real you into your human form and experience.
And this, in its nature, is of joy, it is of beauty, it is of sweetness, of kindness, it is of flow. Do not be scared or ashamed to be those qualities, for they will effortlessly take you into your core. They will effortlessly remind you of who you really are. For as it has been said, this is not an intellectual exercise, dear souls. You are relaxing back into who you really are, the real you.
And in doing so, you are learning to let go of every intellectual shall it be said, facade or identity or however you choose to call it, that which you hold onto that is not in fact you. You see dear souls, a closer you become to yourself, the more you let go and when you have completely let go, you will have returned to your true self. It is that simple, sweet ones.

And so when you find yourself struggling, ask yourself this question, how and why are you holding on and what is it that you are holding onto and what is it that you fear to lose by letting go of it because it is not you. And so sweet ones, with this message, remember, simplicity, playfulness, joy, sweetness and relaxation.
It is asked of you to practice and delight in these for these simple measures will help you accelerate far faster than you can possibly imagine. It really is that simple, sweet ones. You are all so dearly loved. There are immense civilizations that are looking out to many facets of this unfolding project. You are in good hands. You are in the perfect hands of your higher self in every moment.
And in those times when you feel that your higher self is not there, those are simply the times when you have a lot of shall we say human stuff coming through, passing through, passing out and your higher self is taking care of you and assisting this purging with you. But as it passes out, it saturates your ability to perceive and feel your higher self. So it gives you the illusionary perception that your higher self is not there is not helping you. But this is not true, sweet ones. It is not true. The opposite is in fact true. Your higher self is more deeply with you, more deeply assisting.
But like being in a room that you are once in silence and could perceive the slightest sound is now filled full of people shouting at the top of their voices, screaming for your attention as they pass through out the door. That is the analogy of what it is to have human stuff come up and out and leave.
Did your higher self leave you? No. It was within you within that room all along, helping everything pass from one door out the other with as much grace and as ease as you will allow. And that is another key.
Allowance, sweet ones. Allow your process to unfold and be aware where your beloved minds may engage and try to engage and sort things out. There is nothing to sort out, sweet ones. Peacefully allow and peacefully observe.

And with this message today, it is wished for you, the sweetest Love flow that you will allow yourself to connect with inside your center in relaxation, in joy and peace. You are Love Intelligence. You always have been and you always will be.
So be it.

Elohim-15 - Preparing the Heart Fields for Deeper Source Intelligence Connection sample

MEDITATION 15 [52 min time mark].

So, beautiful sweet form of love.
This is what you would call the Source Love Intelligence.
It is pure love.
It has always been love.
It forever shall be love.
And so it is with you.
Remember, remember sweet form of love.
There is no separation.
You are Source Love Intelligence.
Rest for a moment, sweet one.
And as you breathe gently in your own rhythm.
It is asked of you to begin to feel the sweetness, the sweet presence that is in your center, your core, your heart.
And sweet one.
Relax with this.
Allow yourself just as you would, moving into warm waters of relaxation and self-arena.
Allow any of your grip to dissolve.
Allow if you will this sweetness.
To expand and move throughout you.
Reminding every cell.
Every point of matter.
Every organ.
Everything that makes your physical.
Relax.
And be at peace.
You are so beautiful.
You are pure love.
Remember.
Feel this love.
Embracing you.
Holding you.
Reassuring you.
Everything is perfectly okay.
Everything in truth is in rhythm.
Relax.

And as you continue to breathe rhythmically in your own way.
Feel your in-breath.
Inviting more of this love into your sounds.
As if each in-breath invites more and builds more of the sweet love presence that you are.
Beautiful is it not.
Dear ones, your worth is infinite.
Your value is unending.
Your beauty cannot be measured.
Your truth is ever-present.
Remember.
And now as you enjoy this space and state of being.
The teams that surround you offer you the cocoon of Source connectedness and remembrance.
Would you give permission, sweet one, for this to be so?
Enjoy sweet one.
Feel the energy.
That has been placed around you and within you.
Feel the light, the glow, the peace, the sereneness of this energy.
This is you, sweet form of love.
Remember.
Take a moment to enjoy.
This beauty of you.
Welcome it in if you wish.
Deeper.
And now sweet form of love.
We will begin with the first of the activations.
What is offered to you in this first instance,
is an expanding and a clearing.
If you wish it to be.
Of the primary fields that already exist within your sacred heart.
And your heart.
Within your being.
This is in a way to speak to you.
A clearing of the bridge between your sacred heart.
Your energy heart and your physical heart.

That interconnects with the flow and the presence.
The beingness of the infinite love that you are.
Through the infinity point that exists at the center of your sacred heart.
Do you wish this activation and clearing to take place, sweet one?
Beautiful.
And as this takes place.
It is asked of you to fully offer to your higher self.
And the light teams working with your higher self.
All of the old energy systems.
And all lingering energies.
That are to be cleared.
During and after this activation.
Do you wish that to be so sweet one?
Enjoy this space for a moment.
Feel the sweetness.
The truth.
The power of who you are.
It has never left sweet one.
It has simply been awaiting this time.
For you to remember and allow yourself.
To let go of who you think you are.
Who you have made yourselves to be throughout many lifetimes.
So that you can return.
To the sweet infinite beautiful truth.
That is you.
Has always been you.
And will always be you.
Feel and remember.
Remember the feeling sweet ones.
What it is to be the real you.
You are beautiful.
You are magnificent.
You cannot be anything else.
But you can forget.
And now you are remembering.

Enjoy sweet form of love.
This is for you.
As you.
And we come now to a key stage.
You see sweet one.
Long ago you agreed to forget.
You agreed to have the bridge diminished.
You agreed to operate in the state that you have been doing for so long.
This is all part of a grand immense project.
An experiment in existence you might call it.
It is time now to ask you.
Do you now wish to move out of that agreement with yourself?
Beautiful dear ones.
It is now asked of you to offer this in its entirety.
To yourself.
To what you call your higher self.
Surrender this, dear ones.
As you feel the old paradigm within you.
That has been helped in place.
For so very long.
Do you know how long it will take to reach your own?
Does that not feel beautiful sweet one?
This is for you.
From you.
By you.
As your infinite Source.
And as this new energy comes through and fills your heart space.
Feel the beautiful bridge expanding.
Feel this, dear ones.
Feel this.
As the bridge from your infinity point within your sacred heart.
Opens and expands.
It's as if a new field is developing around your heart center.
This is the bridge sweet ones.
Feel the sweet loving intelligence of who you are.

Expanding through this bridge.
Into your physical heart.
Feel the love.
This is you sweet one.
It is the real you.
You are loved beyond measure.
You have never stopped being loved.
That is impossible.
And as you continue with your rhythmic breathing.
Feel this sweet love.
Caressing you.
Softening you.
Reminding you.
That you are this very sweetness.
And there is more to come.
Sweet one.
There is more to come.
And now.
Feel this love extend.
And.
From this bridge.
From your heart into the very cells that make your physical being.
And it is asked of you to ask your cells directly to fully invite this energy in.
This love in.
For your cells to be reminded of what they are in extension of.
Yes.
Your cells are a fractal extension of this love.
Fields of love within fields of love.
Feel your perfection.
You are perfect love sweet one.
Your body is perfect love sweet one.
You are magnificent.
You are beauty in the beauty of your body.
And now lastly sweet one.
A new bridge will now be formed with your wish.

Between the infinity point in your sacred heart.
Through this newly formed bridge.
Into your energetic heart.
And both into your heart and up through your channel to your pineal gland.
Do you wish this to be so sweet one?
So beautiful.
And as you enjoy this flow, this new energy, these new fields, these new bridges.
Would you offer up to your higher self, your soul self and the teams working with your higher self?
The old energies, the old systems, the belief systems that are lacking in self-worth, lacking in self-belief.
Believe.
Believing yourself to be separate from Source love.
Believing yourself to be less than de-wans.
Sweet ones.
It is asked of you to offer this completely up for dissolution, dissolving, and replacing with the new energy of infinite Source love light that is now flowing through you more deeply through these beautiful new bridges inside of you.
Do you wish that to be so sweet one?
And so it is.
Dear sweet form of love.
You are love.
You are infinite.
You are unending.
And unending infinite adventure and joy and beauty and expansion.
Is what will be your new normal?
You are so beautiful, sweet form of love.
You are known to the all.
You have never been unknown and you have never been forgotten.
And as you have undone this choice to forget and feel forgotten, you will now transform in a way that is the most beautiful, that is the most joyful and optimum in flow for you into this new paradigm of you.
Welcome home, sweet form of love.

Welcome home.
And so it is.
And now just take a moment to enjoy the energy that was given.
And continue to breathe rhythmically.
Be a peace, my dear friends.
And when you are ready.
And your own time.
Simply open your eyes.
And come back more grounded.
Present in your body.
And as a request from the teams.
Allow this new energetic to ground into the Earth.
So that this can be provided through grounding by others, who wish to gain access to this same energy.
And for the beautiful Earth herself.
END MEDITATION 15.
